ANTI RAGGING CELL

1. Vision

To foster a secure, harmonious, and inclusive campus environment where every student can pursue their educational and personal goals free from fear, intimidation, or harassment, upholding the highest standards of dignity, mutual respect, and ethical values.

2. Aims

- Zero-Tolerance Ecosystem: To completely eradicate the menace of ragging in all its forms—physical, mental, emotional, or digital—within and outside the college premises.
- Proactive Awareness: To cultivate a culture of empathy, camaraderie, and responsible citizenship among senior and junior students through continuous sensitization.
- Swift Justice & Redressal: To provide a transparent, confidential, and highly responsive mechanism for reporting, investigating, and resolving grievances promptly.

3. Objectives

- Strict Compliance: To ensure full implementation of all statutory guidelines, directives, and regulations set forth by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and Davanagere University.
- Continuous Surveillance: To deploy the Anti-Ragging Squad to monitor vulnerable zones across the campus, including hostels, canteens, corridors, and transit points.
- Orientation & Education: To conduct regular orientation programs, workshops, and awareness campaigns for students and parents at the beginning of every academic year.
- Easy Accessibility: To prominently display anti-ragging helpline numbers, complaint drop boxes, and contact details of committee members on notice boards and the institutional website.
- Counseling & Support: To offer psychological and moral support to students, ensuring first-year students feel welcomed, protected, and mentored by their peers and faculty.
